The Book

Love in Action tells a story of hope: how one ordinary neighbourhood – Manly, in Sydney, Australia – formed a community relationship with the people of Manado, Indonesia, to take action against poverty. With over 100 stunning location photographs (from Stu Harris) and narrative (from Jim Collins), you can meet a few of the families benefitting from this innovative approach to poverty relief, and discover how you too can play your part in making our world a better place.

All profits raised from the sale of the book Love in Action will be dispersed to the development partners of Manly-Manado Inc.
